Our key recommendations following these consultations can be found in the back of the room and on our website.

Madame President, we give you and all delegations our full support, and we are confident that under your guidance, and with the constructive attitude of all, we will make the needed progress in this session that will pave the way to conclude a final agreement in 2020 to protect our beautiful blue Planet.

Thank you very much.