

In the same way, Spanish exploratory campaigns under the sponsorship of the EU originally aimed to assess fish stocks, have led to the identification and protection of VMEs in other NEAFC areas as Edora Bank, thanks to the additional work of Spanish biologists.