

Contribution by the Republic of Turkey to the Fifteenth round of sustainable consultationstaf iuse resources nable fisheries in all marine areas and oceans the Black Sea; overuse of fish stocks, environmental effects and pressures on aquatic systems and impact of climate ated strategies for fisheries management.

ferent ecosystems, collecting data of a given region in terms factors that threaten the ecosystem, hunting quotas, tc. studies are carried out by the relevant Regional Fisheries (RFMO)nd decisions are taken accordingly.

n Plans to ensure that ecosystembased fishing activities are d, protected areas identified There area number of institutional arrangements and jointly managed activities th an ecosystembasedapproachin Turkey.

agement regulations such as closed period and closed area th and minimum landing size, mesh size are updated in studies and global developmentsn Legal arrangements a priority, needs, expectations and commentfishermen ossible, as well as sociœconomic conditions.

ill promote the implementation of the ecosystembased pported.