An UNDEF-funded project works for alternat ves to prison sentencing in Armenia, Azerbaijan and Georgia. The goal is to promote the effective use of non-custodial and early release measures to challenge the overuse of imprisonment, help decrease the prison populat on and build proport onate responses to crime. The project works to help develop a probat on system in Armenia and Azerbaijan -- currently completely lacking in both countries -- while supporting community service and early release through parole. Special focus is given to women and juvenile of enders. UNDEF Execut ve Head a. i. Annika Savill visited inmates in cells at Armenia's high-security and overcrowded Nubarashen prison, and met with prison of cials as well as with the Armenian Civil Society Inst tute, which is partnering with Penal Reform Internat onal South Caucasus to implement the project.
