II. OBLIGATIONS OF DEPOSIT AND DUE PUBLICITY

27. Coastal States, under article 16, paragraph 2, article 47, paragraph 9, article 75, paragraph 2, and article 84, paragraph 2, of UNCLOS, are required to deposit with the Secretary-General of the United Nations charts showing straight baselines and archipelagic baselines as well as the outer limits of the territorial sea, the exclusive economic zone and the continental shelf; alternatively, the lists of geographical coordinates of points, specifying the geodetic datum, may be substituted. Coastal States are also required to give due publicity to all these charts and lists of geographical coordinates. Furthermore, under article 76, paragraph 9, coastal States are required to deposit with the Secretary-General charts and relevant information permanently describing the outer limits of the continental shelf extending beyond 200 nautical miles. In this case, due publicity is to be given by the Secretary-General. Together with the submission of their charts and/or lists of geographical coordinates, States parties are required to provide appropriate information regarding original geodetic datum.

28. In this connection, it should be noted that the deposit of

D. Information relating to a temporary suspension of the innocent passage by Mexico

41. From May to October 2005, the Permanent Representative of Mexico to the United Nations has requested the Secretary-General, by a letter dated 16 May 2005, to publish the information relating to a temporary suspension of the innocent passage in specified areas of the territorial sea of Mexico, in accordance with article 25, paragraph 3, of the Convention. This article stipulates that a coastal State may, without discrimination in form or in fact among foreign ships, suspend temporarily, in specified areas of its territorial sea the innocent passage of foreign ships if such suspension is essential for the protection of its security, including weapons exercises. Such suspension takes effect, according to the same article, only after having been duly published.

42. The texts of notifications relating to a temporary suspension of the innocent passage in specified areas of the territorial sea of Mexico are posted on the web site of the Division at:

http://www.un.org/Depts/los/convention_agreements/innocent_passages_suspension.htm

43. The texts of notifications relating to a temporary suspension of the innocent passage in specified areas of the territorial sea of Mexico are reproduced in Annex III of this Circular.

III. INFORMATION ON ACTIONS REGARDING OUTER LIMITS OF THE CONTINENTAL SHELF BEYOND 200 NAUTICAL MILES FROM THE BASELINES

A. Outer limits of the continental shelf beyond 200 nautical miles from the baselines:
Submission to the Commission made by Ireland

44. On 25 May 2005, Ireland made a submission through the Secretary-General to the Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf, pursuant to article 76, paragraph 8, of the Convention. It is noted that the Convention entered into force for Ireland on 21 July 1996.

45. The submission contains the information on the proposed outer limits of the continental shelf of Ireland beyond 200 nautical miles from the baselines from which the breadth of the territorial sea is measured in the portion of the continental shelf of Ireland abutting the Porcupine Abyssal Plain. According to the submitting State, this is a partial submission. In the view of the Government of Ireland, “this portion of shelf is not the subject of any dispute” and, “its consideration by the Commission will not prejudice matters relating to the delimitation of boundaries between Ireland and any other States”.

46. In accordance with the Rules of Procedure of the Commission, a communication was circulated to all States-Members of the United Nations, including States Parties to the Convention, in order to make public the executive summary of thice maMesw[Ire4(cal)6(a(Ire4(cali)4(cr Sto)5(ri)4(sl)4(an)i)4(f)5(oe)8()66(mnt)4(at)4(e)i)4(fe)2(nal)4(intere)8)4(i)4of

47. The consideration of the submission made by Ireland was on the agenda of the sixteenth session of the Commission held in New York from 29 August to 16 September 2005.

48. "Continental Shelf Notifications" are circulated to all States Members of the United Nations, including States Parties to the Convention, in order to make public the executive summary of the submission made by a coastal State to the Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf pursuant to article 76, paragraph 8, of the Convention. From May to October 2005, the Division has circulated one continental shelf notification, as follows:

Continental Shelf Notification (CLCS. 04. 2005. LOS of 25 May 2005) regarding the receipt of the submission made by the Ireland to the Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf.

49. (The text of the above-mentioned continental shelf notification is reproduced in Annex II to this publication.)

B. Communications from States in response to notifications of the Secretary-General informing about submissions

50. For the period May-October 2005, an additional communication, dated 5 July 2005, was received from India in response to Continental Shelf Notification CLCS.03.2004.LOS dated 15 November 2004 informing about the submission made by Australia. Thus, a total of eight communications has been received. The communication from India was circulated to all Member States and was provided to the members of the Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf at its sixteenth session, 29 August – 16 September 2005.
