Key indicators

- Gender of persons prosecuted for and convicted of traffi[cking] in persons
- Gender and age (adult or child) of TIP victims detected o[r] assisted
- Forms of exploitation recorded
- Citizenship of the victims detected or assisted
- Countries from where victims were repatriated

Gender and age profile of victims detected globally, 2009

Boys 10%
Men 14%
Girls 17%
Women 59%

What are the main origins of TIP globally?

Forms of exploitation among detected victims

Forced labour 36%

Organs removal 0.2%

Other forms of trafficking in persons 6%

Sexual exploitation 58%

Criminalization of trafficking in persons with a specific offence as of November 2008 and August 2012

Number of convictions recorded per year, percentage of countries, 2007-2010

What is the VRS-MSRC?

A tool for States to share data and build knowledge on irregular migration and migrant smuggling

Collecting quantitative and qualitative data on migrant smuggling and irregular migration:

Quantitative size and the geographical directions of flows;

Major routes used;

Fees paid;

Means of transportation and methods used;

Profiles of irregular migrants and smuggled migrants; and

Profiles of migrant smugglers.

Collected data