

New Zealand Permanent Mission to the United Nations
Te Aka Aorere

United Nations General Assembly
Commission on Population and Development 55th Session Meeting – Adoption of the 2022-2025 Strategy

CANZ Statement delivered by Deputy Permanent Representative to the United Nations, Lea

29 April 2022

CHECK AGAINST DELIVERY

I have the pleasure of speaking on behalf of Aotearoa
New Zealand.

Canada and you

We join our colleagues in expressing our appreciation to Ambassador

Maarten Philipse, and the members of the Beautiful People to the Chair, and we welcome the Chair's in particular,

Ms. Sara O'Connell, the Netherlands, and Ms. Mary Stiles, the United States for their participation and presence, all of which are crucial to the success of the initiative the Chair's

them

Mr. Chair, we are very pleased that the Chair is able to agree by consensus the Population and Sustainable Development, in Particular Sustained and Inclusive Economic Growth. This is a very important issue for the health, and and economic impacts of COVID-19, addressing the adverse impacts of climate change, and as central to the goal of economic development for people, and we are pleased to acknowledge the successful completion of this initiative.

This is the second time that the Chair has been able to reach a consensus since 2016.

From these we see that the breakdown of differences in is the concept of legal belief as found in the and the Code of the Civil Procedure, and effective in the ICPD Program Act

Concept as

Mr Chair, we believe it is important to have a credible and reliable system that enables us to engage in our fair and equitable trade relations with the rest of the world.
We are committed to the principles of the World Trade Organization, and we are particularly concerned about the impact of the current trade tensions on our trade partners in Canada, Africa and New Zealand. We are deeply committed to the principles of free trade and we are committed to the principles of the World Trade Organization.
Thank you.