STATEMENT BY THE HONOURABLE DATUK FAIZAH MOHD TAHIR
HEAD OF DELEGATION AND SECRETARY GENERAL, MINISTRY OF WOMEN, FAMILY AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT, MALAYSIA ON ITEM 4: POPULATION

6. Malaysia also recognised that urbanisation would strongly influence the world of the twenty-first century, and urban as well as the rural population would be increasingly interdependent in their economic, social and environmental well-being. Thus, Malaysia is very committed to ensure that urban development

Development Board under the Ministry of Women, Family and Community Development has set up Adolescent Sexual and Reproductive Health (ASRH) Centres called Kafe@Teen in 2006. Currently, more than 14,000 adolescents have registered under this programme and about a quarter of them are actively participating in the activities conducted under this programme.

14. Malaysia is also currently formulating its National Adolescent Plan (2006-2010) under the year 2007
