

TENTH COORDINATION MEETING ON INTERNATIONAL MIGRATION

New York, 9 – 10 February 2012

ECA ACTIVITIES ON INTERNATIONAL MIGRATION

HASSAN YOUSIF

International migration is increasingly gaining importance and priority in the development discourse at the national and regional levels in Africa:

1. Increasing financial contribution of migration to development in Africa, through formal and informal remittances
2. Diaspora investment in home countries
3. Flurry of frameworks on migration focusing on bilateral and multilateral relations, including (EU-AU relations, Africa-China

ECA Activities on International Migration

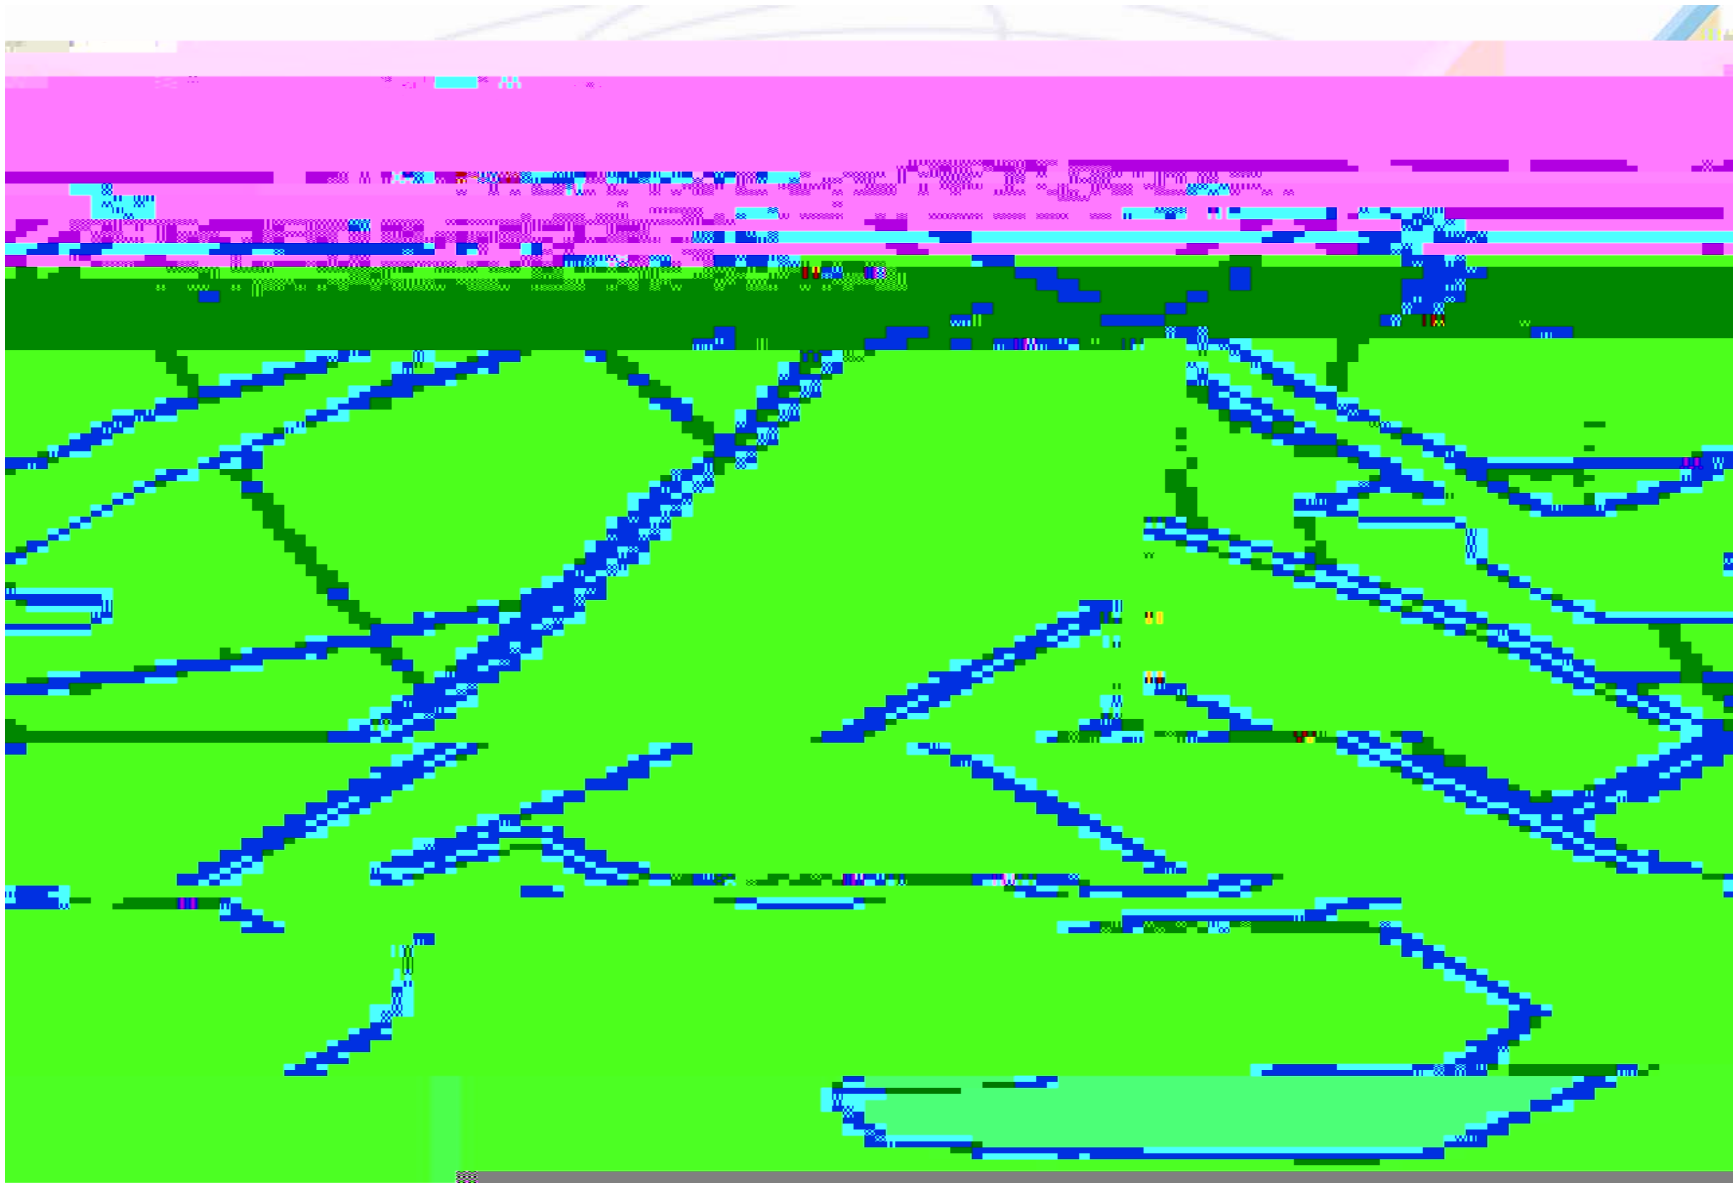

- The High Level Dialogue (HLD) 2006 marks the beginning of ECA's strategic activities on IM. As contribution to the HLD, ECA has prepared a regional report titled international migration and development: implications for Africa.
- ECA's reform in 2006 resulted into the placement of international migration within a newly created social development sub-program 10. Since then research activities on IM have been based on two ECA's strategic pillars of:
 - a) Promoting regional integration in support of the African Union vision and priorities; and
 - b) Meeting Africa's special needs and emerging global challenges.

- Inclusign of IM in th African Development Foru

ECA Activities on International Migration

- Organization of the first Africa Regional Dialogue on International Migration (ARDIM), under the theme of cooperation and policy dialogue to promote regional integration
- Participation in the GMG and the GMG working group meetings
- Activities undertaken by ECA SRO, particularly in Lusaka and Rabat

ECA Activities on International Migration

ECA Activities on International Migration

ECA Activities on International Migration

United Nations
Economic Commission for Africa

International Migration and Development in Africa:
The Migration and Climate Nexus

Impacts

- The activities and reports have greatly enhanced ECA's role on international migration and development in Africa.
- Sharing achievements with the statutory bodies (Ministerial Conference, Intergovernmental Committees of Experts, Statutory Committees)
- Sharing the reports and outcomes of activities with member States, AUC, RECs, and research institutions
- Involvement of experts in ECA activities on international migration.
- Use of international migration for capacity development (research fellows and interns)
- Contribution of development partners (X budgetary)

Activities for 2012-2013

- As part of the strategic framework for subprogram 10 Social Development, for the biennium 2012-2013, ECA will prepare its fifth report on international migration and development. Theme of this report will cover areas of importance for Africa and to support the role of member States in the HLD in 2013.
- Expert group meetings on international migration (regional and sub-regional with SRO – NA)
- Establish an E-Network as a platform for policy dialogue, knowledge sharing and documentation of best practices as well as documentation of bilateral and multilateral agreements.

Activities for 2012-2013

- Continue the dialogue on international migration and development leading to the High Level Dialogue in 2013.
- Support to the Government of Mauritius, which is an ECA and AU member State that has recently taken up the responsibility as chair-in-office of the GFMG in 2012. ECA will share with the Advisor its activities on international migration and development in Africa, and will discuss with the Government of Mauritius the kind of support it needs for making GMFD in 2012 a successful event.
- Continue to be involved with GMG and GMG Working Group

THANK YOU