

I. Context

The following information is provided for your information.

- Migration as an obstacle to economic and social development, for instance in the context of brain drain, possible negative social consequences of migration

