

We are greatly appreciative for your enduring commitment to bringing light to the sometimes under-estimated and under-appreciated work performed by language professionals worldwide, through this exhibit and their role in the adoption by Assembly resolution 71/288 on professional translation.

Let me conclude by saying a word about this photo exhibit, which perfectly renders the highest standards of excellence, dedication and modesty that have characterized generations of language