

First, the current French Polynesian government and elected institutions wants to be removed from the NSGTs list,

Second point, the French Polynesian opposition wishes for the United Nations to be forgotten (nuclear testing compensation, self-determination process, natural a more constructive approach than the present situation. A statement that is