

The Special Committee of Decolonization must intensify its efforts to effectively carry out its responsibilities and to warms the people of Western Sahara. This entails ensuring the protection of relative to September 2023, which should provide