

Secretary H.E. Prof. Nguyen Thi Kim Tien,
Minister of Health of Viet Nam

IPOR Central Assembly Sub-Session on Education and Development

New York, September 22, 2011

Honorable Chair,

Dear Distinguished Participants

Leaders of the Government,

...with 1980s

...economic development, ...

...inappropriate family size related to sexual and reproductive health has greatly

...been improved. Between 1990 and 2010, the ...

...of women ...

...of 5.0% in the period of 1994-2010. The Total Fertility Rate (TFR) was

...and the Contraceptive Prevalence Rate (CPR) increased by 16

Government of Viet Nam will focus our sustainable development agenda on the following:

- Develop appropriate laws and policies that respond to population aging, migration and urbanization imbalance sex ratio at birth and gender