

(Please scroll down)

Statement on behalf of the Secretary-General of the Declaration of Ceasefire

At the 22nd Plenary Meeting

19th session of the General Assembly

01

President of the General Assembly, Mr. President,

Secretary-General for his outstanding work and elaborate

At the outset let me thank the is for the follow-up to the Program of Activities of the reports. Framework for action

in the field of disarmament, demobilization and reintegration.

Mr. President, I would like to thank the Secretary-General for his outstanding work and elaborate

for the follow-up to the Program of Activities of the

in the field of disarmament, demobilization and reintegration.

Mr. President, I would like to thank the Secretary-General for his outstanding work and elaborate

for the follow-up to the Program of Activities of the

in the field of disarmament, demobilization and reintegration.

Mr. President, I would like to thank the Secretary-General for his outstanding work and elaborate

for the follow-up to the Program of Activities of the

in the field of disarmament, demobilization and reintegration.

Mr. President, I would like to thank the Secretary-General for his outstanding work and elaborate

for the follow-up to the Program of Activities of the

in the field of disarmament, demobilization and reintegration.

Mr. President, I would like to thank the Secretary-General for his outstanding work and elaborate

for the follow-up to the Program of Activities of the

in the field of disarmament, demobilization and reintegration.

Mr. President, I would like to thank the Secretary-General for his outstanding work and elaborate

for the follow-up to the Program of Activities of the

in the field of disarmament, demobilization and reintegration.

Mr. President, I would like to thank the Secretary-General for his outstanding work and elaborate

for the follow-up to the Program of Activities of the

in the field of disarmament, demobilization and reintegration.

~~Historic gains were documented in maternal health indicators in most countries~~

(from 49.2 to 27.4), infant (from 21 to 12) and under-5 mortality rates (from 24.9 to 12.0) since 2000. Abortion rates have also decreased (from 3.7 to 1.6) with parallel increase in contraceptive prevalence rate (from 20% to 54%). Screening programs for breast and cervical cancer were introduced in 2005 and universal Access to HIV

- ~~Georgia introduced its flagship programme of Universal Health Care Programme in~~ ~~Health education and that there are still significant barriers for many around the world to~~

To tackle remaining challenges in my country, specific measures are being undertaken aimed ~~for improving sustainable and inclusive economic growth, laws which will be available for~~