Finally, the Committee notes that the focus of implementation will now shift to other United Nations duty stations and entities, and looks forward to receiving information on the implementation of the next phases of ORMS. Mr Chairman, Let me now turn to the Advisory Committee's report on progress on the implementation of the storm Sandy after action review recommendations. Concerning physical infrastructure remedial work, the Advisory Committee notes that as of January 2014, the Organization had recovered $64.2 million in costs incurred
