consistently underutilized conference resources for the past 10 years were identified and the Secretariat of the Committee on Conferences made specific suggestions to the Secretariat of each body on how to improve its utilization. This is reflected in the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences.

In this context, the Committee considered the Secretary-General's specific suggestions on measures to improve the utilization factor of those intergovernmental bodies whose average utilization factor has for the past 10 years been below the benchmark of 80 per cent. While delegations agreed to urge those intergovernmental bodies to take their utilization factor into account when planning their future sessions in order to reach the benchmark, some delegations insisted that more practical measures to

Mr. Chair,

Chapter V deals with documentation and publication-related matters. Several delegations remained concerned about the late issuance of documents for the Fifth Committee, and suggested adjusting the wording of the draft resolution in order to improve timely submission.
