

~~Report by Ms. Catherine Bellard, Assistant Secretary General~~

for Human Resources Management

Agenda item 139: Human Resources Management

~~Report of the Secretary General on the Composition of the~~

July 2012 to 30 June 2013 and the report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Mission in Liberia (A/68/400) The three other Human Resources reports, on mobility, seconded military

It is also noteworthy that the number of staff subject to the system of desirable ranges increased in 2013, largely due to the inclusion of the following for calculation which staff counted disciplinary measure was imposed by the Secretary-General and statistics on the numbers and types of cases received by the Office of Human Resources Management during the reporting period, the

This year, the report also includes data on the number of appeals contesting disciplinary measures imposed since the introduction of the new system of justice in 2009, and the status of those appeals before the Dispute and Appeals Tribunal. The last part of the report information provided not be such as to breach the right to confidentiality of the staff members involved.

~~I would also like to draw the Committee's attention to the fact~~

~~that disciplinary cases are generally very fact specific and each case~~

~~carries with it unique mitigating and aggravating circumstances. As~~

