

across several missions in the areas of conduct and discipline, waste management, Umoja implementation, fuel management, and air operations. Mr. Chairman, we note that many of these observations are not new, and we look forward to discussing these and other cross-cutting matters in the Committee and how these recommendations can best be addressed.

Regarding

