

INTERVENCION DE LA EMBAJADORA MARIA DEL CARMEN DOMINGUEZ

My delegation associates itself with what was expressed by El Salvador on behalf of CELAC.

We would like to thank Mrs. Bettina Tucci Bartsiotas, Deputy Secretary-General and Comptroller, and Mr. Carlos Ruiz Morrison, Chairman of the the region, contributing with observers and observers and human resources to the Mission.

In a context in which multilateralism goes through a period of scrutiny, we want to highlight that the Mission in Colombia is one of the few issues on the Security Council's agenda that raises consensus, being an example of the real impact on people's lives and what the United Nations can achieve when there
