Point 136 de l'ordre du jour

Contribution proposée du Secrétariat au mécanisme de partage des coûts du système des coordonnateurs résidents

Nous soutenons fermement les efforts déployés par le Secrétaire général et apprécions

Le système des coordonnateurs résidents est un élément clé du repositionnement du système de development system to delivery on the 2030 Agenda. We therefore particularly look forward to the presentation of the second report on this topic, scheduled for December of this year.

While we do not want to pre-empt the conclusions of this second report by the Secretary-General, we in its current configuration. In this regard we welcome the independent review of the resident coordinator system and note it confirmed the validity of the cost-sharing formula.

We also note with concern that the independent review concluded that the overall coordination budget is insufficient. Like other entities of the UN system, the Secretariat relies on the work of the resident
