

3. The budgetary implications of these recommendations and decisions for the programme budget for the biennium 2018-2019 are estimated at $9,725,200, and the same amount is estimated for the proposed programme budget for the year 2020.

4. Should the General Assembly approve the recommendations of the Commission, the requirements for the biennium 2018-2019 for the United Nations will be addressed, as necessary, in the context of the second performance report. The financial requirements for 2020 will be taken into account in the context of the upcoming proposed programme budget for the ~~sæ~~ report