The Member States of the European Union welcome the progress made in the implementation of the management reform and express their thanks to all Secretariat staff involved for their tremendous efforts and engagement in this process. At the same time, we consider reform implementation and modernization as ongoing processes and would like to point out a couple of areas that we believe need our continuous attention.

We invite the Secretariat to continue its efforts to improve efficiency, accountability and transparency, including through better visibility of data, notably so building on the opportunities provided by
