

Financial situation of the United Nations
Statement
by
Catherine Pollard, Under-Secretary-General
Management

In addition, payments for peacekeeping operations have been received from the following Member States: Dominican Republic, Oman, Panama, Portugal and Timor-Leste.

On behalf of the Secretary-General, I would like to thank these Member States for their positive action since last week's briefing on the UN financial situation.