

cause of the indigenous peoples. Their efforts have borne fruit and this issue now has a place in the international global agenda. Let us pledge to work together for their integration into the mainstream of our national activities.