Before the Sixth Committee

On Agenda item 105:

“Measures to Eliminate International Terrorism”

New York, 9 October 2012

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

Mr. Chairman,

I would like to thank you and your delegations in administering you on your part as Chair of this Committee. Our congratulations also goes to other members of the Bureau. We assure you of our full support and cooperation with the statements delivered yesterday by the coordinators of the Movement and the Organization of Islamic Cooperation.

Mr. Chairman,

The Islamic Republic of Iran has been a victim of terrorism, still suffering from terrorist attacks under different forms and manifestations of State terrorism. As a target of terrorism and a victim of certain State terrorism, we understand the untold consequences of acts of terrorism for individuals and communities. We have been a victim of terrorism in numerous territories. We are taking measures to address their situation properly. The victims are best protected by policies of terrorism.

Mr. Chairman,

So sadly, State terrorism continues to endanger peace, security and basic
