

la CPI que tuvo lugar en Kampala, Uganda, incorporó nuevos crímenes de CELAC wishes to reiterate its firm commitment with respect for and promotion of international humanitarian law, and its willingness to take the necessary measures, in accordance with their domestic legislations, for its full implementation at the national level, in particular for dissemination and the criminalization of conducts that are prohibited. It is essential that States have adequate legal tools to punish perpetrators of war crimes.