

Mr. Chairman,

Mr. Chairman,

Albania considers the principle of the universal jurisdiction for certain crimes of a serious nature as an additional tool to ensure support for the fight against impunity and the quest for seeing the justice done. We consider it as a bridge of the impunity gap between the unwillingness or not being able to exercise jurisdiction for certain crimes of a serious nature as an additional tool to ensure support for the fight against impunity and the quest for seeing the justice done. We consider it as a bridge of the impunity gap between the unwillingness or not being able to