

PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS

Beijing, October 10, 1967

Dear Mr. Ambassador,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of October 7, 1967, regarding the matter mentioned therein.

The Chinese Government has always been committed to the principle of peaceful coexistence and the Five Principles of Peaceful Coexistence.

In the current international situation, it is essential for all countries to maintain peace and stability.

We believe that through dialogue and mutual understanding, the international community can achieve a more just and equitable world.

We hope that your country will continue to support the efforts of the Chinese Government to maintain world peace.

Yours sincerely,

Qin Qiang
Minister of Foreign Affairs

Enclosure: 1 copy of the letter of October 7, 1967.

Very truly yours,
Ministry of Foreign Affairs

Mr. Chairman:

I have the honour to introduce under agenda item 170 the resolution entitled "Observer Status to the International Network for Bamboo and Rattan" contained in A/C.6/72/L.8. In addition to directly supports the achievement of some of the SDGs, including goals 1, 7 11, 12, 13 and 15.

Over the last two decades, INBAR has set up a global network and engaged in cooperative activities for the innovative conservation and sustainable use of bamboo and rattan resources and their products, and to facilitate their trade, thereby increasing the role of bamboo and rattan in
