

SLOVENIA

Check against delivery

STATEMENT

BY

Head of International Law Department
Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Slovenia

Agenda item 81

Report of the International Law Commission on the work of its sixty-ninth session, Cluster 1, Chapter IV: Crimes against humanity, Chapter V: Provisional application of treaties, Chapter XI: Other decisions and conclusions of the Commission

72nd Session of the General Assembly
Sixth Committee

New York, 24 October 2017

Mr Chairman,

I would first like to thank the Chairman of the Commission, Mr Georg Nolte, for his helpful introduction of the report to the Sixth Committee and all members of the Commission for a productive session in which some notable progress has been made. We congratulate hto on their appointment as Special Rapporteurs.

Slovenia thanks the Codification Division of the Secretariat, also for their continuous updating of the website, which is an invaluable source of information on

Before focusing on topics Crimes against Humanity and the Provisional Application of Treaties, Slovenia wishes to briefly address Chapter XI regarding Other Decisions and Conclusions of the Commission .

Slovenia is grateful to

On this occasion, Slovenia will concentrate on certain guidelines, but we are ready to provide further written comments to the Special Rapporteur in due course if requested.

In relation to the VCLT terminology in the guidelines, we are concerned by the departure from the VCLT

Another aspect of the relation between Articles 25 and 18 is how they interact during provisional application. Does the interim obligation imply that a s