Mr. Chairman,

As my delegation is taking the floor for the first time, I take this opportunity to join my colleagues in congratulating you and members of the Bureau on your deserved election. I commend you, Mr. Chairman, on the able manner in which you have conducted these deliberations thus far. Please be assured of my delegation's abuses of the same. My delegation wishes to emphasize the importance of this

It is vital that the scope and application of universal jurisdiction be clearly and unequivocally defined to avoid abuse of the principle, which abuse could endanger international law, order and security. Even though, if applied appropriately, the principle is an effective way to combat impunity internationally and to ensure the continued interoperation of this issue will lead to progress of the issue of Law 1

Mr. Chairman,
