

YKE7M0026-49

VERBAL NOTE

The Permanent Mission of Finland to the United Nations presents their compliments to the Secretary-General of the United Nations and, in accordance to the note LA/COD/59/1 of 17 January 2017, have the honor to submit the following:

application of the principle of universal jurisdiction in the paragraph 3 of the United Nations General Assembly resolution 70/133 of 2016.

The information that was submitted in 2010, 2012 and 2016 regarding the Criminal Code is still valid. As an update, we would like to add the following:

1(1) of the Decree on the Implementation of Section 7 of Chapter 1 (internal of the Criminal Code has been complemented (in force from 1.3.2016) with the following:

Counterfeiting currency, the preparation of the counterfeiting of currency, the use of counterfeit currency referred to in the International Convention for the Suppression of Counterfeiting of Currency and of Other Securities.

(2) in Directive 2014/62/EU of the European Parliament and the Council. Before the amendment instead of referring to the directive mentioned above this provision of the implementation decree must make reference to the Council Framework Decision 2000/383/JHA that was

On 12 April 2017, the local prosecutor would like to submit the following information: No new judgments relevant to this query have been delivered. In one case, where two persons are charged with terrorist acts, the trial is ongoing in the District court of Tampere. One additional trial terrorist act is pending to the stage, where the prosecutor is considering whether to bring charges. In addition, there is "in the" preliminary investigation stage regarding the suspected terrorist commission of terrorist crime.

The Permanent Mission of Finland avail themselves of this opportunity to renew the Secretary-General of the United Nations the assurances of their highest consideration,

27 April 2017

H.E. António Guterres
Secretary-General of the United

