Mr. Chairman,

We align ourselves with the statement delivered by Islamic Republic of Iran on behalf of the Non-Aligned Movement. I would like to make the following remarks in our national capacity

Mr. Chairman,

7. The issue of accountability has remained elusive because of the complexities of legal aspects relating to sovereignty and jurisdiction of member states. Further, the 'legal personality' of the United Nations that may bestow some immunity or privileges that may be necessary for UN operations in a country; and the ~~functional capacity, or the willingness, of member states to~~ investigate and prosecute the accused have further complicated this issue.

8. The UN itself can take some disciplinary measures only and does not exercise any criminal jurisdiction. It is unclear whether ~~investigations conducted by the IIN may be accepted as evidence~~

Mr. Chairman,

11. In cases of member States that do not assert extra-territorial jurisdiction over crimes committed abroad by their national, it is necessary to encourage and provide appropriate assistance to update their national laws and regulations to provide for such jurisdiction and to prosecute any such

by the establishment of a committee of UN officials on mission

The Act allows for extradition in respect of extraditable offences in terms of an Extradition Treaty with another State. In the absence of bilateral treaty, the Act also allows an international

14. Although the UN has been working hard to establish clear standards and rules by which UN personnel must abide, much more progress needs to be made. Developing uniform rules;
