

Mr / Madam Chair,

On various occasions since 2011, the ICRC has underscored the potential adverse effects on humanitarian action of certain counterterrorism measures taken by States, both internationally and domestic