	Wearactes to Edumnate International Terrorism
	Thank you, Mr. Chairperson,
	Mr. Chairmannan
	Mr. Chairperson,
	At the outset, I would like to congratulate you on your election and thank you and the bureau of the Sixth Committee for your efforts. As always, I wish to convey my delegation's fullest support and nledge of cooperation

	Mr. Chairperson,
	Tvii. Champerson,
	The State of Israel is, unfortunately, no stranger to terrorism. Our small State faces daily threats from various terrorist groups and actors that aim to sow terror and fear in the hearts of all of our civilians
	These terrorists and terrorist around use surviety of testion and methods that shallenge law shiding

	Mr. Chairperson,
	In our fight against terrorism, Israel remains committed to the rule of law and the value of life. We seek effectively, while upholding these principles. This is true even when faced with an enemy that has no regard for such obligations and even views our commitment to such principles as a weakness that is to be used and manipulated to create a strategic and public relations advantage.

 	One way we do this is through our domestic laws, which we hope will serve as a model for other States

Mr. Chairperson,

As we gather annually to discuss the global threat to security and peace, we must then turn these gatherings into action, and unite as one community of nations to combat terrorism. As it is the Sixth Committee that is tasked with focusing on legal issues, we must redouble our efforts both domestically and internationally to ensure that we develop and foster the best and most effective legal tools and remedies that will make a meaningful contribution to fight terrorism within the law. This includes
