under the JCPOA. Last week, on 3 October 2018, the ICJ issued its injunction against the US Government's illegal move to restore unilateral sanctions against Iran. The Court's unanimous order was another clear testament to the illegality of the United States' sanctions against our country, its people and its citizens.

	The ICJ reiterated that the United States is obliged, under its international commitments, to remove the obstacles created as a result of its actions and illegal decisions

In its ruling, the Court has also obliged the United States to guarantee that it will give necessary permits for cases specified in the court order and will handle relevant payments and tecnosticana. The Court—while confirming_UN Security_Council Resolution 2231 has recognized the damages and irreparable harm that the US has caused Iran and its international business relations and rejected the efforts by the US Government to dismiss the Court's
