Statement on behalf of the Alliance of Small Island States (AOSIS) under Agenda Item 87 Protection of Persons in Event of Disasters

18 October 202

1. Chair, I have the honor to deliver this statement on behalf of the Alliance of the Smillsland States it is our first time speaking on this agenda item, we recognize the lor and thoughtful consideration of this agenda item by the Committee. As motion, we do have a position on whether to develop a convention based on the draft articles. How please allow us to make a few comments on the linkage between these articles and provisions in international law.
