Statement by Switzerland

Merci,

some suggestions for additions during the previous session; however, we feel that the elements contained in draft Article 1 are sufficient, as its purpose is to define the scope of the future convention.

Allow me to conclude by emphasizing that Switzerland is resolutely committed to the fight against impunity. We hope that this second resumed session and our discussions this week will be productive and useful in preparing the Sixth Committee to take a positive decision on the follow-up to the draft articles at its 79th session. We look forward to engaging constructively in this process.

Thank you very much.
