

_____ it is important to harmonize the standards of investigation of such crimes allegedly committed by United Nations officials and experts on mission. In this regard, regular exchange of information and sharing best practices among the stakeholders is important. We note with appreciation various measures taken by the UN to that end, including by providing a platform for discussion.

_____ ensuring criminal accountability of UN personnel and experts on Missions is a shared responsibility. We encourage all parties to collaborate, including by providing timely information and other materials required for investigations and criminal proceedings.

However, it is imperative to exercise extreme caution to safeguard the confidentiality of communications regarding allegations of misconduct. This is crucial to prevent unfair stigmatization of individuals, especially when allegations have yet to be proven beyond reasonable doubt.

_____ it is critical to ensure the capacity building of the host country particularly by strengthening the Judicial and Security Sector. Bangladesh has been contributing to the Judicial and Security Sector strengthening in several peacekeeping operations. Bangladeshi Judges are
