

Case No. 2017-1064

Rehman
(Appellant)
v.
Secretary-General of the United Nations
(Respondent)

appeal. On 1 June 2017, the Secretary-General filed his response to the motion stating that “although [Ms. Rehman] fail[ed] to demonstrate how the circumstances of her request are ‘exceptional,’ given the limited scope of the request to correct the record of her original submission ..., the [Secretary-General] does not have any further comment on, and does not otherwise object to, [Ms. Rehman’s] Motion”.

3. Article 18*bis*(1) of the Rules of Procedure of the Appeals Tribunal provides that “[t]he President may, at any time, either on a motion of a party or on his or her own volition, issue any order which appears to be appropriate for the fair and expeditious management of the case and to do justice to the parties”. As it is in the interest of the fair and expeditious management of the case for the Appeals Tribunal to have a correct and complete record of the parties’ submissions and considering that the Secretary-General has not objected, Ms. Rehman’s motion IS GRANTED.
