

situation has become precarious and she has not been able to support her children and herself. There is a real danger of irreparable harm to her children who are not enrolled in school due to the lack of resources. The request is made on humanitarian considerations and in the interests of justice.

5. On 18 December 2024, the Secretary-General filed a response to the Motion. The Secretary-General submits that, situation and the material situation of her dependent family members. In the circumstances, it appears to be appropriate for the fair and expeditious management of the case and to do justice to both parties to consider the appeal at the Spring Session.

that Ms. Kiingi's Motion for Expedited Hearing of the Appeal is and the Secretary-General's appeal will be reviewed in the UNAT's 2025 Spring Session. !

Original and Authoritative Version: English

Decision dated this 26 day of December 2024 !
in Beijing, China.

()
Judge Gao,
President

Order published and entered in the Register on this 26 day December 2024 in