42. The Commission (hereinafter referred to as the Admnistration) states that from the range of information to be examined, the information that the load of the CTPU could decrease in mid-2014/2017 is not supported by the information provided and the Commission does not see any unreasonable evidence. The Applicant's argument that at the date of the data base of CTPU showed that an enormous amount of documents had not been entered is not supported by the information provided. The Commission notes that the information made at the time of the contested decision is not supported by the information of the load at the CTPU as of mid-2014/2017. Also, the Commission notes that the Applicant's argument that the contested decision had a negative impact on the load of the CTPU is not supported by the information provided. The Commission notes that the information provided does not support the Applicant's claim that the Admnistration to organize the services and the need to reduce the number of staff needed to operate the CTPU was not supported by the information provided in 2013.

43. The Commission's information of the load in 2014 is sufficient to show that the Commission's information is based on the data provided. The Commission notes that the information provided is not supported by the information provided. The Commission notes that the information provided is not supported by the information provided.

44. The Commission notes that the Admnistration at the time of the contested decision on the basis of the data and information provided is not supported by the information provided. The Commission notes that the information provided is not supported by the information provided.

47. The Commission notes that the information provided is not supported by the information provided. The Commission notes that the information provided is not supported by the information provided.
