Introduction

1. On 13 July 2017, the Applicant, a Senior Legal Officer at the P-5 level, step 10, in the Office of Legal Affairs, filed an application in which she described the contested decision as the decision of the Administration to reduce her contracted salary and the manner in which that decision was implemented. As a remedy, the Applicant requested that the decision be rescinded, and that she should receive the outstanding backdated pay. The Applicant requested an expedited hearing.

2. On 14 August 2017, the Respondent filed the reply submitting that the application was not receivable and that, in any event, the impugned decision was lawful.

3. Following several case management orders, the case was reassigned to the undersigned Judge on 1 April 2019.

4. By Order No. 57 (NY/2019) dated 2 April 2019, the Tribunal issued an order in this and other cases raising the same or similar factual and legal issues:

On or before Tuesday 10 April 2019, the Applicant must file a written response to the Tribunal's order.
