Introduction

1. On 21 June 2017, the Applicant, a Legal Officer at the P-4 level, step 10, in the Office of Legal Affairs, filed an application in which she described the contested decision as the decision of the Administration to reduce her contracted salary and the manner in which that decision was implemented. As remedy, the Applicant requested that the decision be rescinded, and that she should receive outstanding backdated pay. The Applicant also requested an expedited hearing.
2. On 24 July 2017, the Respondent filed the reply submitting that the application was not receivable and that, in any event, the impugned decision was lawful.
3. Following several case management orders, the case was reassigned to the undersigned Judge on 1 April 2019.
4. By Order No. 57 (NY/2019) dated 2 April 2019, the Tribunal issued an order in this and other cases raising the same or similar factual and legal issues:

On or before Tuesday, 9 April 2019, the Applicants and each of them are to respond to the following questions:

- a. Is it accepted that, in his responses to Orders No. 133-136 (NY/2018) and 25 (NY/2019), the Respondent has correctly characterised the nature of the claims and, if so, are his submissions accepted or challenged, that the claims are identical to the arguments already considered and rejected by the Appeals Tribunal in Lloret Alcañiz et al. [2018-UNAT-840] and Quijano-Evans et al. [2018-UNAT-841] ;
- b. If the answer to question a is in the affirmative, do each of the Applicants seek to distinguish their case from the rulings of the Appeals Tribunal and, if so, to state the grounds in a submission not exceeding five pages.
- c. If the Applicants and each of them accept that the Dispute Tribunal is bound by the Judgments of the Appeals Tribunal to state if they wish to withdraw their claim and, if
