

.m

---

B e o l

R e j i

R e j i

C
I

C
S
N

The Application and Procedural History

1. The Applicant is a provided the names of six witnesses who could confirm his version of events. No response to this letter was forthcoming.

7. According to the Respondent, the Applicant is alleged to have physically assaulted a pregnant staff member, Ms. Ngbadulezele, on 9 April 2015, by slapping

Case No. UNDT/NBI/2016/016

Order No.: 031 (NBI/2016)

23. The Tribunal finds that there are in this case “exceptional circumstances” warranting the placement of the Applicant on ALWOP. Whatever is proven or unproven through further investigation, and the interviewing of the Applicant’s own witnesses, the Applicant concedes that he pushed Ms. Ngbadulezele. Based on the content of the investigation reports, the Applicant’s admission that he pushed Ms. Ngbadulezele and the medical findings of “blunt trauma” injuries, the Tribunal is satisfied that the circumstances surrounding the allegations are sufficiently “exceptional” as to justify the placement of the Applicant on ALWOP.

24. Based on the evidence before it, the Tribunal finds no impropriety in the Respondent’s application of staff icant’s ad2j(o)-20 rg 0.9 0 0 r420 rg 0eld2j(o)w72 Tf 0 0 2 dusol 0 r