

Introduction

1. On 15 April 2019, the Applicant, a staff member with the United Nations Development Programme filed an application for suspension of action contesting the decision of the Administration to terminate his permanent appointment on 24 April 2019, following abolition of his post,

