UNITED NATIONS DISPUTE TRIBUNAL

Case Nos. UNDT/NY/2020/006

Order No. 199 (NY/2020)

Introduction

1. On 12 February 2020, the Applicant filed the application in which he contests

"the Administration's finding of misconduct against him and the decision to impose the disciplinary measure of separation from service, with compensation in lieu of notice, and with termination indemnity".

2. On 10 March 2020, the Respondent duly filed the reply in which he submits that the application is without merit.

The Tribunal os limited scope of review in disciplinary cases

- 5. The Appeals Tribunal has consistently held the "[j]udicial review of a disciplinary case requires [the Dispute Tribunal] to consider the evidence adduced and the procedures utilized during the course of the investigation by the Administration". In this context, [the Dispute Tribunal] is "to examine whether the facts on which the sanction is based have been established, whether the established facts qualify as misconduct [under the Staff Regulations and Rules], and whether the sanction is proportionate to the offence". In this regard, "the Administration bears the burden of establishing that the alleged misconduct for which a disciplinary measure has been taken against a staff member occurred", and when "termination is a possible outcome, misconduct must be established by clear and convincing evidence". Clear and convincing proof requires more than a preponderance of the evidence but less than proof beyond a reasonable doubt—it "means that the truth of the facts asserted is highly probable". See, for instance, para 32 of Turkey 2019-UNAT-955, quoting Miyzed 2015-UNAT-550, para. 18, citing Applicant 2013-UNAT-302, para. 29, which in turn quoted Molari 2011-UNAT-164, and affirmed in Ladu 2019-UNAT-956, para. 15, which was further affirmed in Nyawa 2020-UNAT-1024.
- 6. The Appeals Tribunal has generally held that the Administration enjoys a "broad discretion in disciplinary matters; a discretion with which [the Appeals Tribunal]
