Introduction

1. The General Assembly, in its resolution 61/149, decided to convene in 2009 a review conference on the implementation of the Durban Declaration and Programme of Action, to be conducted within the framework of the General Assembly, and, to that end, requested the Human Rights Council to undertake preparations for that event. In its resolution 3/2, the Council decided that it would act as the Preparatory Committee for the Durban Review Conference. In its decision PC.2/13, the Preparatory Committee decided that the Durban Review Conference, which would include a high-level segment, would be convened in Geneva, from 20 to 24 April 2009.

2. The Durban Review Conference will be held at the United Nations Office at Geneva, in the premises of the Palais des Nations. Delegations will find information on practical arrangements for the Conference in a note of the Secretary-General (A/CONF.211/5).

Item 1. Opening of the Conference

3. Pursuant to Preparatory Committee decision PC.1/5, the Secretary-General designated the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights as the Secretary-General of the Durban Review Conference. The Conference will be opened by the Secretary-General or, in his absence, by the Secretary-General of the Review Conference, who will preside until the Review Conference has elected its President.

Item 2. Election of the President

4. At its first meeting, the Conference will elect a President from among the representatives of participating States.

Item 3. High-level segment

5. Pursuant to Preparatory Committee decision PC.2/13, the Durban Review Conference will include a high-level segment. In its decision PC.1/4, the Preparatory Committee decided that participation in the Conference should be at the highest possible level.

6. The Bureau of the Preparatory Committee proposed that the organizational and procedural arrangements for high-level segments followed by the Commission on Human Rights and the Human Rights Council will be applied during the Durban Review Conference. Further details and modalities relating to the high-level segment of the Durban Review Conference will be provided by the Secretariat to Member States and observers as appropriate.

Item 4. Adoption of the rules of procedure

7. At its first meeting, the Review Conference will adopt its rules of procedure. The Conference will have before it the provisional rules of procedure (A/CONF.211/3) as recommended by the Preparatory Committee in its decision PC.1/9.

Item 5. Election of other officers of the Conference

8. In accordance with rule 6 of the provisional rules of procedure, the Conference will elect from among the representatives of participating States 21 vice-presidents, a rapporteur-general and chairpersons of the Main Committee and the Drafting Committee.

Item 6. Credentials of representatives to the Conference

9. A credentials committee of nine members will be appointed at the beginning of the Review Conference. Its composition will be based on that of the Credentials Committee of the General Assembly at its sixty-third session, in accordance with rule 4 of the provisional rules of procedure. After examining the credentials of representatives, the Credentials Committee will report to the Review Conference without delay.

10. Pursuant to rule 3 of the provisional rules of procedure, the credentials of representatives will be submitted to the Secretary-General of the Review Conference, if possible not less than one week before the opening of the Review Conference. The credentials will be issued either by the Head of the State or Government or by the Minister for Foreign Affairs.

Item 7. Adoption of the agenda

11. At its first meeting, the Review Conference will adopt its agenda, the draft of which will, until such adoption, be the provisional agenda of the Conference, in acco
