

Strategy with support from development partners. Thus, we look forward to their continued support to these reform efforts.

Second, the promotion of private sector to play their role as their existing commitment, we believe that the Addis conference represents an opportunity for donor countries to reaffirm their commitment to allocate 0.7% of GNI to ODA. Thus, we would like to stress on turning this Addis Ababa Action Agenda into proactive implementation with effective monitoring and coordination

