

INFORMAL HEARINGS OF THE BUSINESS SECTOR ON FINANCING FOR DEVELOPMENT

11 October 2007, Conference Room 2 Provisional Programme

Overall Theme

Business Sector Perspective on the Status of Implementation of the Monterrey Consensus and Tasks Ahead

10:00 – 10:15 a.m.

Opening of the meeting and organization of work

Welcome remarks by the Chairperson of the meeting H.E. Mr. Maged A. Abdelaziz, Permanent Representative of Egypt to the United Nations Vice-President of the 62nd session of the General Assembly

10:15 a.m. – 12:45 p.m.

Panel discussion

Moderator:

Biographical notes

Parag Saxena is Co-founder and CEO of Vedanta Capital. He has been involved in more than 300 private transactions and has served on the Partnership Advisory Boards of Accel, Gryphon, Domain Partners, Essex Woodlands, Kiwi I Ventures, Salix Venture Partners and Skyline Venture Partners, as well as on the boards of several private and public companies. Mr. Saxena co-founded the private capital group at Citicorp Investment Management and INVESCO Private Capital. Previously, he worked in the Technology Management Services Group at Booz, Allen and Hamilton. Mr. Saxena received MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania in 1982 and MS in Chemical Engineering from West Virginia College of Graduate Studies in 1978.

Aram B. Zamgochian is Project Director, Middle East and Africa Affairs, United States Chamber of Commerce. His project management experience covers various donor-funded and private sector technical assistance as well as policy initiatives in Afghanistan, Bangladesh, India, Nepal, Thailand, Singapore, Pakistan and Sri Lanka, with a focus on: energy trade favoring clean fuels; energy sector liberalization; energy sector planning and policy analysis; developing competitive markets for industry and energy; strengthening the local private sector to advocate for investment-friendly market reforms; regional cooperation in energy efficiency (standards and labeling); increasing the private sector role in reform and energy efficiency; and executive-level peer exchanges to promote transfer of private industry best practices in developing energy markets.

John Sullivan is Executive Director of the Center for